PROJECT FOCUS

Rebuild street to provide:

- better sidewalks
- better lighting
- space for bikes and walking
- new trees
- street furniture - benches, trash cans, tables, etc.
- new parks and places for gathering
- new technology
- places for public art and community identity
- neighborhood signs
- improved connections to businesses and services
- safer crossings and paths
- locations for community events

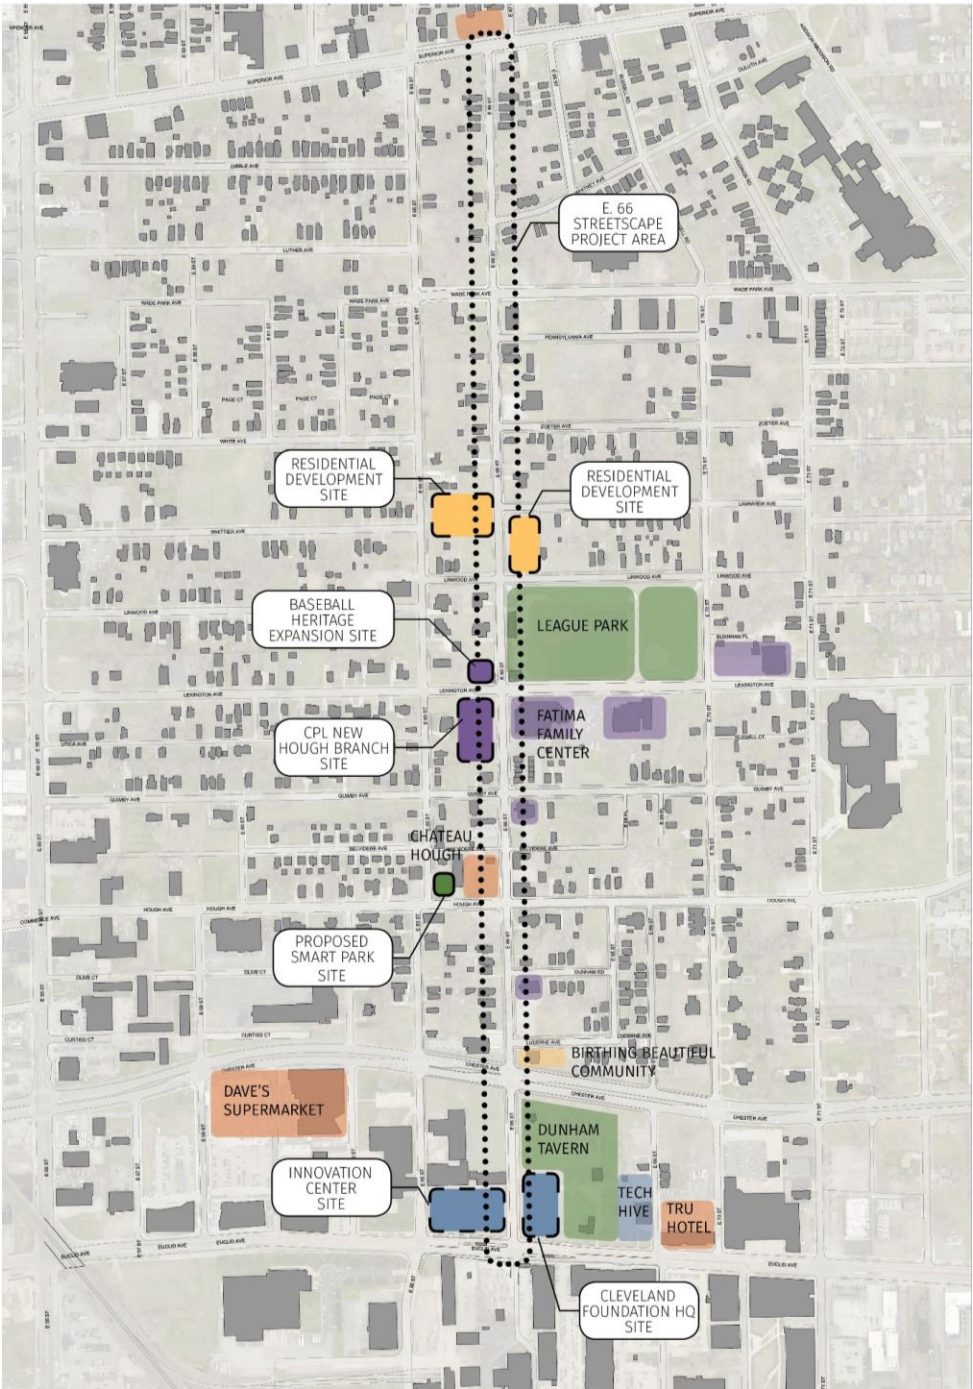

NEIGHBORHOOD CONTEXT

The East 66th Street Corridor is home to many important community spaces and places, including:

- Historic League Park and Baseball Heritage Society
- Fatima Family Center
- Chateau Hough Winery
- Fannie M. Lewis Community Park
- Birthing Beautiful Communities

Several projects are planned along the corridor, providing additional investment in the neighborhood. These include:

- New Cleveland Foundation Headquarters at East 66th and Euclid
- Midtown Innovation Center at East 66th and Euclid
- New Cleveland Public Library branch at East 66th and Lexington
- Allen Estates residential project
- Neighborhood smart parks network
- New linear park connection to Dave's Supermarket
- Expanded park area at Dunham Tavern

Community Directives / Guiding Principles

Heritage

How does it build from the past and tell the neighborhood's stories?

Community

How does it reflect, serve and strengthen this unique place?

Technology

How does it work? How does it improve day-to-day life? What is possible?

Environment

How does it promote and sustain long-term health?

Design

How does it look and feel? What makes it unique?

Justice

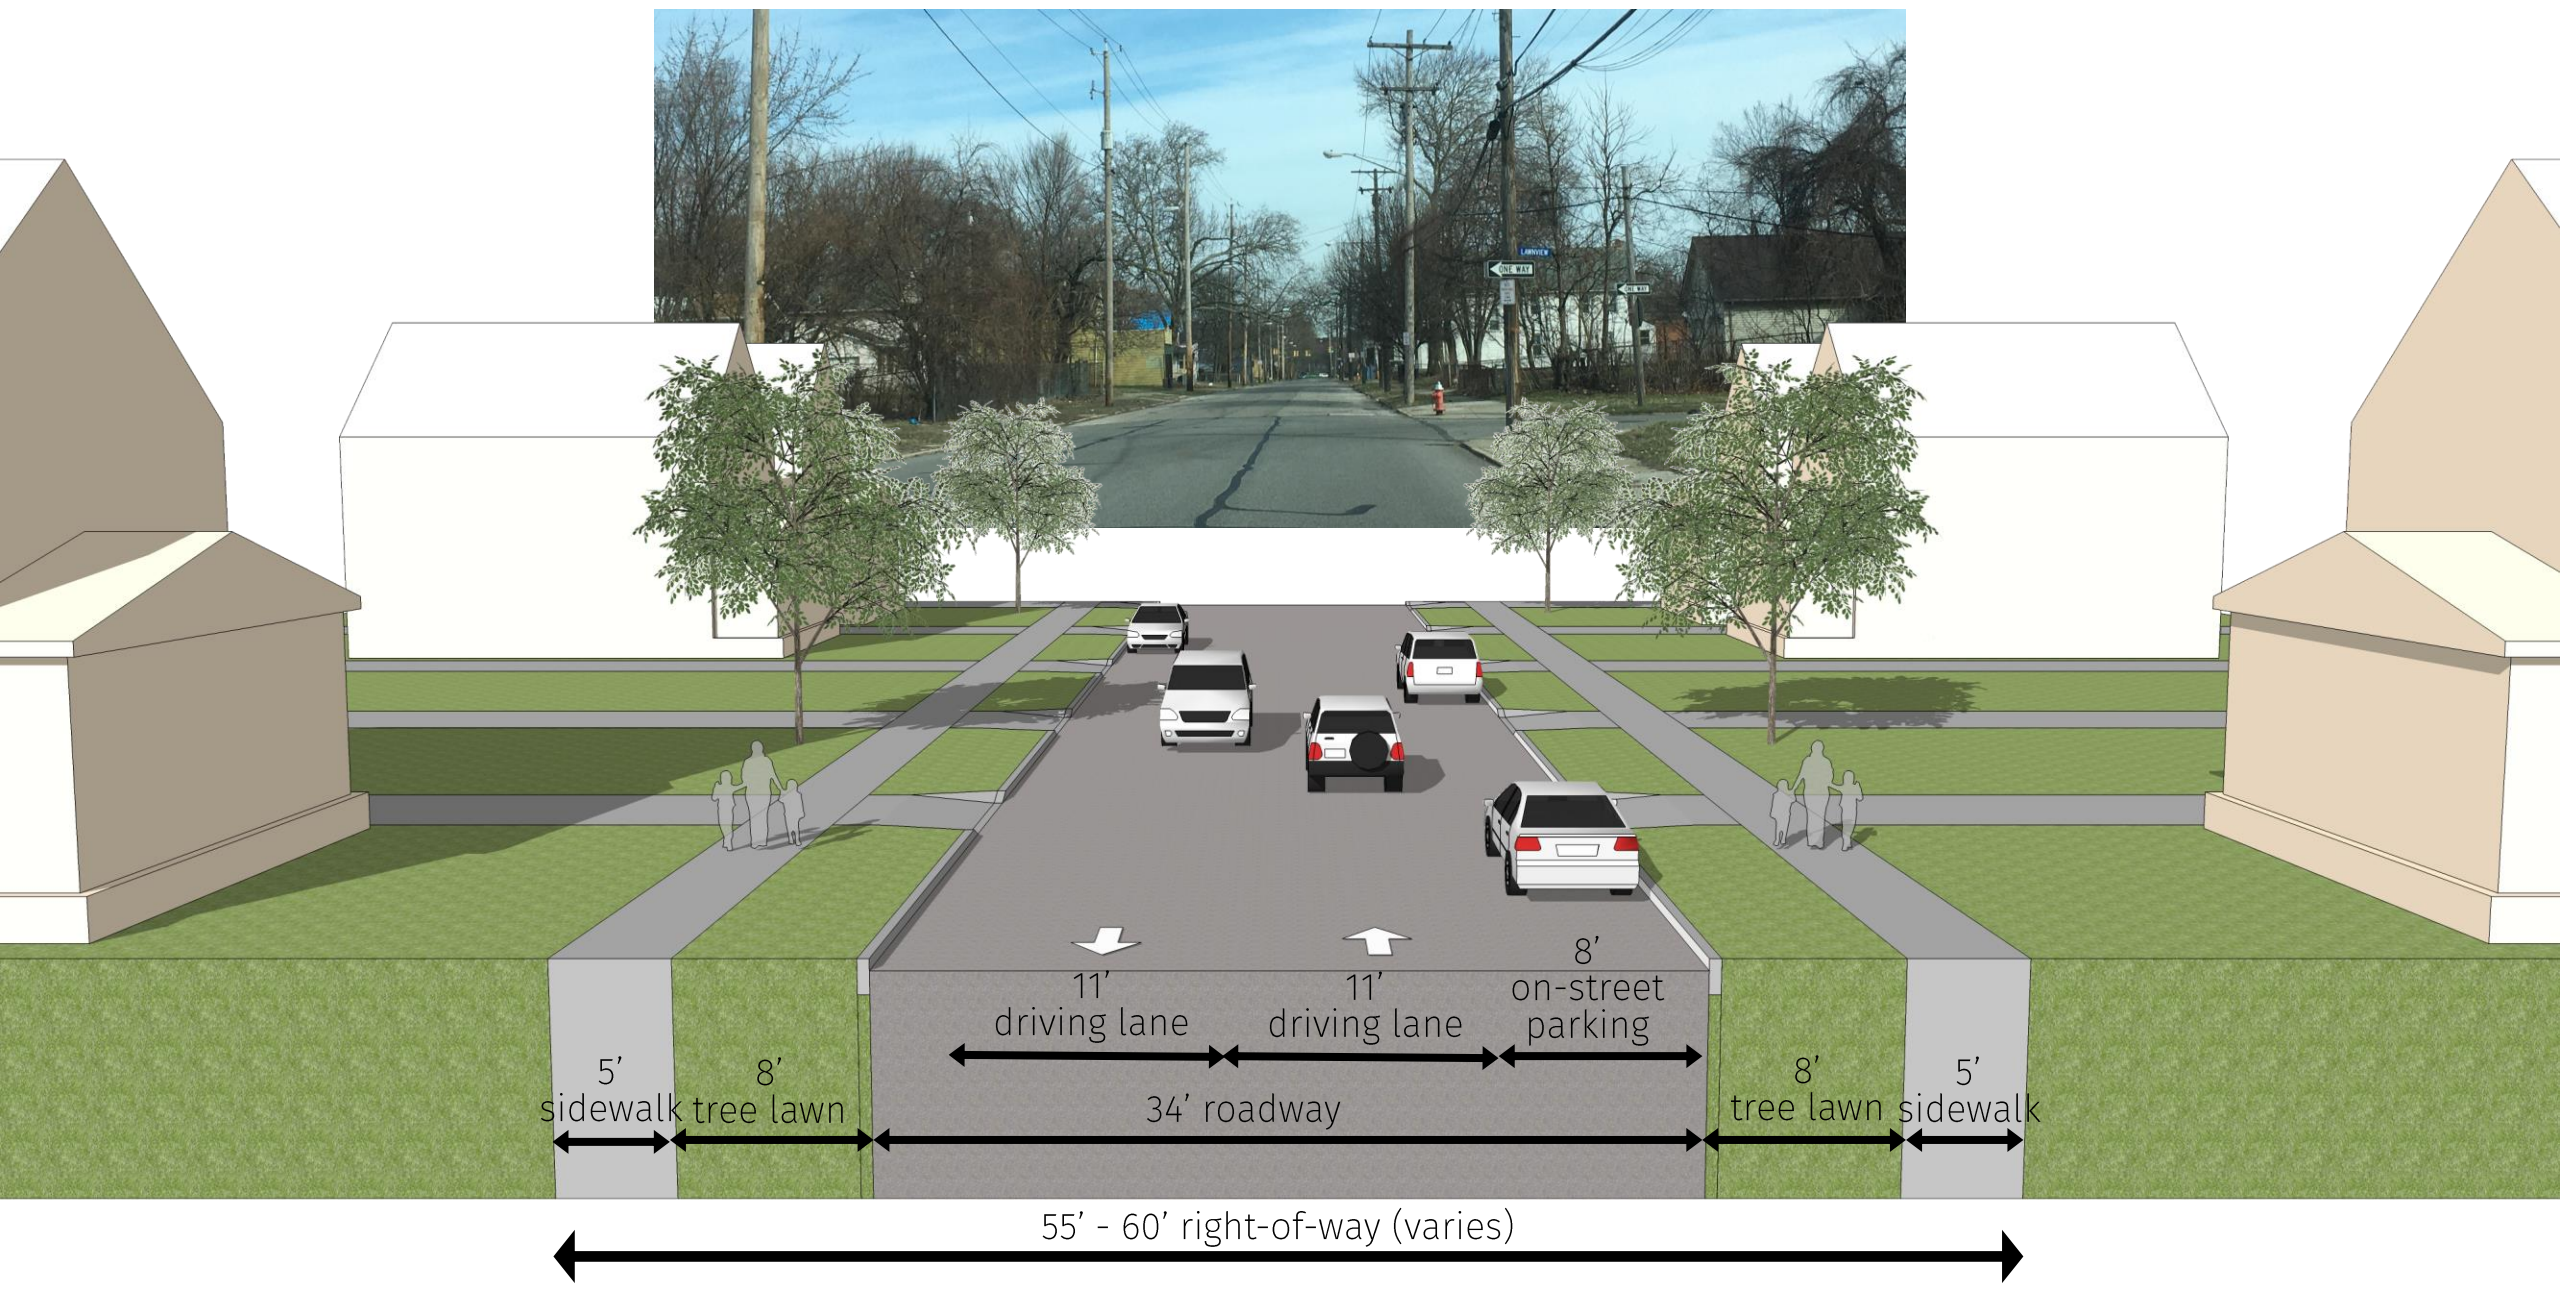

How does it promote economic justice, eliminate oppression and end violence?

GOAL

“Create a national model public space that emphasizes seamless connectivity and accessibility - promoting physical, social, and technological links – with an underlying commitment to justice and equity.”
